The Dangers of Buying a Fake License Online

The dark web and even surface-web classifieds are filled with scammers declaring they can send by mail a genuine, authorized driver's license for a low price. Falling for this trap brings serious effects that far outweigh any potential monetary savings.

1. Legal Consequences

Buying, having, or utilizing a fake or fraudulently gotten driver's license is a severe criminal offense. In most countries and states, it is categorized as a felony. Consequences can include:

- Hefty monetary fines varying from hundreds to countless dollars.
- A long-term rap sheet.
- Jail time, depending upon the severity of the offense and intent.
- A lengthy suspension or delay in your ability to acquire a real chauffeur's license legally.

2. Identity Theft

When people try to buy a low-cost license online, they are usually asked to provide delicate individual info, including their full name, date of birth, Social Security number (or nationwide ID equivalent), address, and a digital photograph. Handing this information over to an uncontrolled, anonymous website is an open invitation for identity theft.

3. Financial Loss

Fraudsters running these operations count on untraceable payment methods-- such as cryptocurrency, wire transfers, or gift cards. When the cash is sent out, the site typically disappears, or the purchaser receives a poorly printed piece of plastic that can not pass even a basic visual examination, not to mention electronic scanning by law enforcement.

The Reality of Government-Issued Identification

It is an universal reality throughout almost all contemporary legal systems: No government firm outsources the printing and releasing of chauffeur's licenses to third-party e-commerce sites.

A valid chauffeur's license requires:

1. Identity Verification: Presenting physical birth certificates, passports, or proof of residency face to face.
2. Biometrics: Having your picture and signature caught at an official government facility.
3. Proficiency Testing: Passing a government-administered composed understanding test and a behind-the-road skills test with a certified examiner.

If an online service claims they can bypass these steps since they have "insider connections" at the DMV, it is a conclusive rip-off.
