Empress Hotel

Located in the heart of the charming La Jolla village, the Empress Hotel is an enchanted palace located just four miles north of Mission Bay. https://masaimarasafaripackages.net/3-day-safari/ Adding a little bit more beauty to the already amazing San Diego, this hotel is very popular for tourists.Known for its warm hospitality, the Empress Hotel has superior accommodations and very attentiveservice. This superior hotel is a great place to relax and enjoy everything that San Diego has to offer you and your family.La Jolla is an upscale coastal resort that sets amist beautiful cliffs and coves. La Jolla offers plenty of shops, fine dining, distinctive galleries, and amazing beaches. By staying at the Empress Hotel you'll be captivated with the area and amazed time and time again.LuxuryIf your looking for luxurious accommodations, the Empress Hotel has them. Accommodations hereinclude either one king or two queen beds, available in several room types, including traditional, deluxe, empress, and even the empress spa suite.All rooms at the Empress Hotel feature:– Cable television

– A refrigerator– Coffee maker and bottled water– Free local calls and faxing– Voicemail and data ports– Private bath with hairdryer and bathrobes– Iron and ironing boardServices and amenitiesThe Empress Hotel offers superior service, such as valet parking, courteous room service, and other amentities.The complimentary deluxe continental breakfast here includes fresh Starbucks coffee, served on the sun deck every morning. The Manhattan restaurant is right around the corner as well, offering some excellent fine dining.The hotel also offers an exercise center, spa, and sauna so that guests can pamper themselves. They can also refer you to local spas and other things nearby that you may be interested in.For those on a working vacation, the Empress Hotel offers masai mara 3 day tour complimentary Internet access on twofloors. Private meetings and conferences can be held in one of the two meeting rooms, availablefor groups of up to 50 people. Both meeting rooms are equipped with high speed internet access. If your going to be staying in the La Jolla area, the Empress Hotel is one the best hotels in thearea. The hotel is in a great location, minutes away from some of the biggest attractions thatSan Diego has to offer.You can visit Sea World, the Birch Aquarium, and many other popular tourist attractions. Best ofall, you can come back to your relaxing hotel after a day of checking out La Jolla and San Diego and just relax – the way things were always meant to be on vacation.