

Floral installations are one of the most powerful methods to produce "wow" moments at any event. Unlike simple centerpieces, which are beautiful yet contained, floral installations are large-scale, theatrical, and absorbing. They are able to transform a whole venue, create a breathtaking centerpiece, and cause attendees speechless. This resource from the team at Kollysphere will lead you through everything you need to understand about floral installations for events and how to produce memorable "wow" moments.

Beyond the Centerpiece

Floral installations are large-scale, three-dimensional floral arrangements that transcend traditional table centerpieces. They are able to be suspended from overhead surfaces, mounted on walls, placed on floors, or even integrated into architecture. They are able to be made from fresh flowers, dried flowers, or a blend of both. They can be straightforward and elegant or elaborate and dramatic. The key is that they serve as created to make a declaration.

Why Floral Installations Create "Wow" Moments

Floral installations generate "wow" moments since they are unexpected, immersive, and emotionally impactful. They astonish attendees and make them pause in their tracks. They create a sense of wonder and awe. And they offer a stunning backdrop for photos and memories. When attendees enter <https://kollysphere.com/> a space and see a breathtaking floral installation, they sense an impression of occasion and thrill that establishes the mood for the whole function.

What to Create

Kollysphere suggests considering the following types of floral installations.

Hanging Installations

Hanging arrangements are suspended from the ceiling and produce a theatrical, floating effect. They are able to be simple floral chandeliers or intricate, multi-tiered structures. They are particularly effective in locations with tall ceilings where they can be viewed from afar.

Vertical Beauty

Wall arrangements are mounted on walls and produce a breathtaking, living background. They are able to be complete floral walls, floral letters or words, or abstract floral designs. They are optimal for photo backdrops, stage backdrops, or entrance features.

Floor Installations

Floor arrangements are placed on the floor and are able to be large, freestanding structures or smaller, clustered arrangements.
