

While Click for more based in coastal Maine, Annie Paige Photography also serves Pennsylvania, particularly the Main Line area, reflecting the growing reach of the business. Couples in Pennsylvania get the same film-inspired, storytelling approach that's built Annie's reputation across the East Coast. This dual-location presence means couples planning a wedding in either state, or somewhere in between, can work with the same photographer.

Annie Paige Photography | 59 State St, Portland, ME 04101 | (207) 841-4333

It's part of a broader expansion beyond the original Maine-based business into destination and multi-state wedding photography. Call (207) 841-4333 to ask about Pennsylvania wedding photography availability.
