North of the city, the Hollins area of Roanoke County blends quiet residential streets, the Hollins University campus and a growing number of businesses along Peters Creek Road and Plantation Road. Residents here have the same need as everyone else in the cleaning service Roanoke valley, a reliable cleaning service that turns Click here for more info up on time and does the job right. The Happy Housekeepers has been meeting that need across Roanoke County since 1979.

For homes in Hollins, the team offers one-time cleanings as well as weekly, bi-weekly and monthly plans. Standard service covers dusting and polishing furniture, vacuuming carpets, mopping hard floors, complete kitchen and bathroom cleanups, dusting window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans, emptying trash and removing cobwebs. Faculty families, retirees and young professionals all use the service in different ways, and plans are built around each household.

Hollins is also close to Roanoke-Blacksburg Regional Airport, and many residents travel for work. Because every employee is bonded and insured by the company, you do not need to be home during your visit. Clients often schedule a clean while they are away so they come back to a fresh house rather than a week of dust. A follow-up call after your first cleaning makes sure the routine is exactly what you wanted.

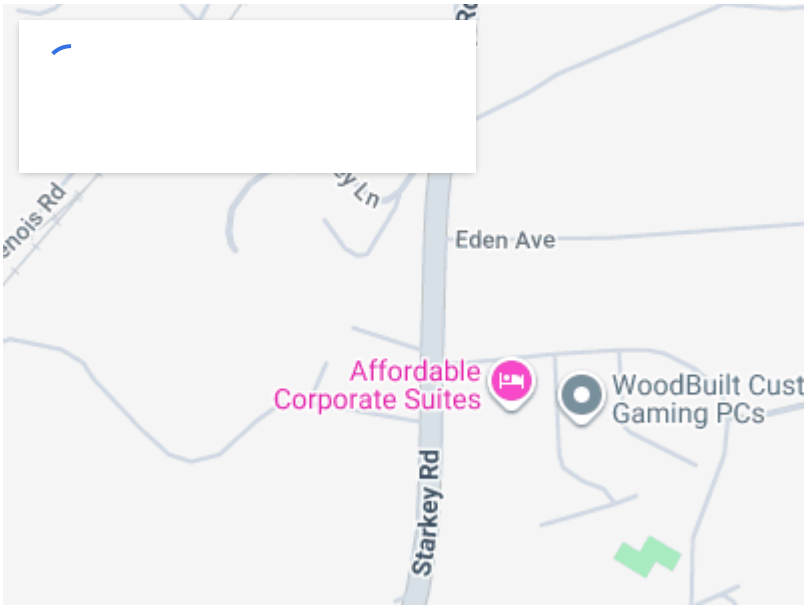

Businesses in the Hollins and Peters Creek corridor can use Corporate Clean, the company's commercial division established in 1986. It handles executive offices, general offices and medical facilities on daily, weekly, bi-monthly or monthly schedules, supplies all chemicals and equipment, and keeps a supervisor on call. The company is licensed, bonded and insured and has been BBB accredited with an A+ rating since 1993.

Seasonal deep cleaning is popular in Hollins, too. Spring and fall cleanings, washing walls and woodwork, cleaning light fixtures, cleaning inside ovens and refrigerators, and basement cleaning are all available as add-ons or one-time services. Households near the university often book a deep clean at the end of the academic year or before visiting family arrives for the holidays, then settle back into a lighter recurring schedule for the rest of the year.

Whether you need a one-time deep clean before family visits or a standing weekly appointment, getting started is easy.
