

A wedding photographer typically arrives one to one and a half hours before the first scheduled pre-ceremony photo event, and Annie Paige Photography builds this timing into every wedding day plan. Getting details and getting-ready shots require that early arrival window to capture everything without feeling rushed. Coordinating arrival time with the rest of the wedding day schedule helps avoid gaps or missed moments later on.

Annie Paige Photography | 59 State St, Portland, ME 04101 | (207) 841-4333

This kind of planning has been refined over more than one hundred weddings photographed. Click for more Call (207) 841-4333 to build a photography timeline for your wedding day.