1. The Official Authority: Who Controls Driving Licenses in Hungary?

Before diving into driving schools and examinations, it is important to understand the governing bodies responsible for releasing and controling driving licenses in Hungary.

The process includes two primary entities:

- The Ministry of Construction and Transport (Építési és Közlekedési Minisztérium): Sets the overarching legal framework, curriculum, and examination requirements.
- Federal Government Offices (Kormányablak/ Government Window): The main administrative service provider where applications are processed, physical licenses are issued, and foreign licenses are transformed.
- AKG/ KAV (Közlekedési Alkalmassági és Vizsgaközpont Nonprofit Kft.): The Transport Suitability and Examination Center, accountable for administering all official theory and practical driving tests.

2. Step-by-Step Guide to Obtaining a Hungarian Driving License

For first-time motorists, the journey starts at a recognized driving school (Autósiskola) and culminates Magyar Jogosítvány Gyors Beszerzése at the main testing center.

Step 1: Medical Fitness Assessment

Before registering in a driving school, candidates should get a medical certificate of fitness to drive from a family doctor (GP). This includes a basic health check covering vision, hearing, and basic physical and psychological well-being.

Step 2: Theory Course and Exam

Applicants should finish a theoretical training course (frequently available online in English for expats) covering traffic rules, road signs, and automobile mechanics. When completed, the prospect passes an official computer-based multi-choice examination administered by KAV.

Action 3: Practical Training (The Road Hours)

Upon passing the theory examination, the learner selects an instructor for practical driving lessons. In Hungary, a mandatory minimum variety of driving hours need to be completed before a trainee is allowed to take the useful test.

- Minimum required hours: 29 hours behind the wheel.
- Minimum distance covered: At least 580 kilometers.

Step 4: The Practical Driving Test

The final obstacle is the dry run, conducted with a KAV examiner. The test examines the chauffeur's ability to handle traffic securely, execute maneuvers (such as parking), and show vehicle control.

3. Summary of Costs and Requirements

The monetary investment needed by the Hungarian driving license supplier network differs depending upon the school, the student's aptitude, and the transmission type (manual vs. automatic).
