Case Battles are a multiplayer variation of the traditional case-opening system. Instead of opening a case alone, a gamer develops or joins a lobby with a predetermined number of individuals (usually 2, four, or eight). If a tie happens, the prize is split evenly or awarded to the player whose skin has a rarer float worth.

The core appeal depends on the social component: gamers can talk, track each other's luck, and compete for better drops than they would on a solo open.
