Hiring help around the house should not mean scrambling for cash or remembering to leave a check on the kitchen counter. The Happy Housekeepers, which has provided house cleaning in Roanoke since 1979, keeps payment simple by accepting Visa, Mastercard, American Express and Discover. It is a small convenience, but for busy households it removes one more piece of friction from the week.

Card payment fits naturally with the way most customers use the company. https://penzu.com/p/bd3420575b4e2135 Because employees are bonded and insured by The Happy Housekeepers, customers do not need to be home during cleaning. If you are at work, traveling or caring for family when the crew arrives, there is no need to coordinate a hand-off of payment at the door.

Card payment also helps when someone else is arranging the service. Adult children setting up cleaning for an aging parent, a relocating employee whose company is covering a move-out clean or a landlord handling a rental turnover can all manage payment directly without being on site.
