

When tackling a bed cleanout in Virginia Beach, one of the most common surprises homeowners and contractors encounter is the mattress or box spring disposal fee. Many dumpster rental companies charge a flat fee for each mattress or box spring because they require special handling and disposal. D.E.M.M. DUMPSTERS LLC, a trusted local provider, clearly states their mattress disposal fee as $75 each. This post will break down everything you need to know about mattress and box spring dumpster fees, how to choose the right dumpster size for your project, and how to avoid costly overage charges with fast scheduling and transparent pricing.

Why is There a Mattress Disposal Fee?

Mattresses and box springs are bulky, heavy, and often not recyclable with regular trash. They require special processing at facilities licensed to handle them. Because of this:

- The mattress or box spring must be removed from the landfill-bound debris stream.
- It takes up more volume in the dumpster than typical waste items.
- Disposal companies pay extra fees for mattress recycling or landfill tipping.

To offset these costs, D.E.M.M. DUMPSTERS LLC charges a $75 mattress disposal fee per mattress or box spring. This fee is in addition to your dumpster rental rate but is clearly communicated upfront, with no bait-and-switch surprises.

Understanding Mattress and Box Spring Fees with D.E.M.M. DUMPSTERS LLC

Transparency is key when renting a dumpster. D.E.M.M. DUMPSTERS LLC makes it easy to understand pricing with clear fees listed on their website and during a 24/7 online booking process. Here is what you should know:

Item Fee Notes
Mattress Disposal Fee $75 each Charged per mattress, includes special landfill/recycling handling
Box Spring Disposal Fee $75 each Same as mattress fee; box springs are bulky and require special disposal
Dumpsters Sizes 10, 15, 20, 30, 40 cubic yards Select size based on debris volume; see size guide below
Weight Limits Depends on size; typically 2,000 to 7,000 lbs Exceeding weight limits incurs overage fees—no surprises when you read the terms!

Choosing the Right Dumpster Size for a Bed Cleanout

Before booking, estimate your mattress and furniture debris volume so you can pick the right dumpster size. Here's a quick checklist:

- Count Your Mattresses and Box Springs: Each mattress averages about 7 cubic feet; box springs are roughly the same.
- Other Debris: Remove old bedding, bed frames, or any additional furniture to estimate total volume.
- Consult Dumpster Sizes: D.E.M.M. DUMPSTERS LLC offers 10, 15, 20, 30, and 40 cubic yard dumpsters.

Example calculations:

- One mattress + one box spring = approx. 14 cubic feet, or about 0.5 cubic yards.
- Household mattress disposal with additional furniture might require a 15–20 cubic yard dumpster.

Below is a handy size guide:

Dumpster Size Approximate Capacity Typical Use Cases
10 cubic yards Approx. 1 pickup truck load Small cleanouts; 1–2 mattresses w/small furniture
15 cubic yards Approx. 1.5 pickup truck loads Moderate cleanouts; 2–3 mattresses + bed frames
20 cubic yards Approx. 2 pickup truck loads Large cleanouts; multiple mattresses + furniture
30 cubic yards Approx. 3 pickup truck loads Whole house cleanouts, room remodels, roofing debris
40 cubic yards Approx. 4 pickup truck loads Major renovations and construction debris

Weight Limits and Overage Charges: What You Need to Know

D.E.M.M. DUMPSTERS LLC caps the weight for each dumpster size to ensure safe and legal transport:

- 10–15 yard dumpsters typically allow 2,000–3,000 lbs max.
- 20–30 yard dumpsters usually allow 4,000–6,000 lbs max.
- 40 yard dumpsters have weight limits up to 7,000 lbs.

Exceeding weight limits results in overage fees calculated per extra pound, which can add up quickly. The company clearly states these limits in their rental agreements and customer login portal to avoid surprises.

Note: Mattresses and box springs, due to metal springs and dense materials, significantly add to the weight. Don't ignore weight limits just because you have volume space left!
